

The organisation, Dere Brothers, was incorporated in 1936. Pure Silverware is synonymous with name Dere Brothers. We have been producing world-class silverware for the last seven decades and are the leading suppliers of silverware to wholesalers and retailers across various cities in India. We specialize in silverware of the highest purity i.e. 99% and 92.5%.

Our factory is located at Girgaum, Mumbai spread over more than 9000 sq.ft.. Our skilled artisans have been producing heirloom quality silver, which adorn the houses of many renowned Indian families as well as leading corporate offices. We comprehend the needs of our esteemed clientele and we endeavour to satisfy them to the best of our ability. Our customized expertise is always preferred and valued.

Manufacturing premium quality while maintaining the highest service standards is our corporate policy.

Uday Krishnakant Dere is the proprietor of the company Dere Brothers. He has been associated with silverware industry of India producing world-class silverware for more than 30 years. With his vast knowledge and years of experience, he is heading Dere Brothers from the forefront to greater heights of success.

The retail arm, Dere & Sons, was established in 1996. Mr. Uday Dere, having worked in the Flagship Manufacturing Company, Dere Brothers, realized the need to address the requirements of the retail consumer. The retail outlet of Dere & Sons is located above the factory at Girgaum, Mumbai. Uday Dere, along with his partner in business and life, Megha Dere, are working towards providing their customers with world-class silverware and service.